

"You have to join every other movement for the freedom of people."

BAYARD RUSTIN

Film screening: Brother Outsider – The Life of Bayard Rustin

SUNDAY, JUNE 23 | 3 - 5 PM
CHAPEL HILL PUBLIC LIBRARY

As we celebrate the resilience and strength of the LGBTQ community 50 years after Stonewall, this program will explore the impact of civil rights pioneer Bayard Rustin.

The juxtaposition of this expansive thinker – mentor to Martin Luther King Jr. and key organizer of the modern civil rights movement – against the fact that he was pushed aside due to his sexuality is even more striking for us in the community because of his connection to Chapel Hill, where he was threatened and arrested.

The film will be followed by intergenerational panel discussion, moderated by Mandy Carter, on the strength and resilience of the LGBTQ community over the last 50 years.

EVENT CO-SPONSORS

Chapel Hill-Carrboro NAACP | UNC Black Caucus | Orange County Human Relations Commission