

Proclamation

VETERANS DAY

WHEREAS, on Veterans Day, America pauses to honor every service member who has ever served our country; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the United States live in freedom because of the personal sacrifices made by those who have served, and by those now serving in the armed forces; and

WHEREAS, under the most demanding of circumstances and in the most dangerous corners of the earth, America's veterans have served with distinction; and

WHEREAS, with courage, self-sacrifice, and devotion to our Nation and to one another, these service members represent the American character at its best; and

WHEREAS, on Veterans Day and every day, we celebrate their immeasurable contributions, draw inspiration from their example, and renew our commitment to showing them the fullest support of our gratitude; and

WHEREAS, with respect for and in recognition of the contributions our service members have made to the cause of peace and freedom around the world, the Congress has provided that November 11 of each year shall be set aside as a legal public holiday to honor our Nation's veterans; and

WHEREAS, as we pay tribute to our veterans, we are mindful that no ceremony or parade can ever repay the debt to the men and women have served with courage and devotion while serving our country.
